

The background of the entire slide is a solid yellow color. It is decorated with numerous heart shapes of varying sizes. Some hearts are a light blue color, while others are a darker blue. All hearts have a thick black outline. They are scattered across the slide, with some appearing in the corners and others more centrally located.

Remember always evaluate your sources!

Quick Guide

When you encounter any kind of source, consider:

1. Authority - Who is the author? What is their point of view?
2. Purpose - Why was the source created? Who is the intended audience?
3. Publication & format - Where was it published? In what medium?
4. Relevance - How is it relevant to your research? What is its scope?
5. Date of publication - When was it written? Has it been updated?
6. Documentation - Did they cite their sources? Who did they cite?

How to decide what to study.

What are you passionate about?

What do topics are you ignorant of?

What subjects are typically banned or challenged?

Think about the people who are villainized by our society. What do you really know about those communities?

Are there any issues in your community that you want to work on? What knowledge and skills do you need for that work?

Getting Articles from Behind Paywalls

Check your local library, they might have a subscription

If a website gives you a limited number of articles empty your cache or switch browsers.

Use RemovePaywall, an online tool that allows you read paywalled articles

Getting around Censorship

Archive.org- Archives of government websites, library books, films, audio, etc.

Uncensoredlibrary.org-
